

The AMBEST - AMBUCK$ 2010 Grand Prize Motorcycle Winner Announced!

AMBEST, America's Best Truck Stops, Travel Centers, Fuel Stops and Service Centers in partnership with Lucas Oil Products is excited to announce the winner of the 2010 AMBUCK$ Grand Prize. Aaron Potter is the proud owner of a Lucas RSD 250 Pro-Street Motorcycle! On July 15, 2010 at 4:35 PM, Mr. Potter made his lucky AMBUCK$ card swipe at Little America AMBEST in Little America, WY. Mr. Potter is a professional truck driver and drives for Bingham Livestock. Sammy Zambrana at the Little America AMBEST was the associate who helped Aaron with his winning swipe.

Aaron Potter and his lovely wife, Shanelle were presented with keys to the AMBEST Grand Prize Lucas motorcycle in the AMBEST booth at the Mid America Trucking Show on Friday April 1, 2011.

AMBEST is a chain of 182 Travel Centers and Service Centers featuring locations nationwide. Lucas Oil Products is a nationally known manufacturer of petroleum additives and oils for high performance engines. Lucas Oil built the high performance AMBUCK$ grand prize motorcycle that was awarded to Aaron Potter.

AMBUCK$ is one of the oldest professional driver rewards cards with over 500,000 active card holders. Aaron Potter's winning AMBUCK$ transaction was drawn from millions of qualifying entries. In addition to the AMBUCK$ Grand Prize, numerous other prizes are awarded throughout the year for registered AMBUCK$ card users.

Pictured above from Left to Right are: Shane Burns (Lucas Oil Products Heavy Duty Market Specialist); Aaron Potter (AMBEST AMBUCK$ Grand Prize Winner); Shanelle Potter (Aaron Potter's Wife); and Steve Allen (AMBEST President).